

Please uphold Indiana law regarding phone solicitations. We have a law that protects consumers even more than the federal one, and we do NOT want businesses, including phone companies and banks to call us trying to sell some new service or product. Please side with consumers here, and not with business that invades our homes.